JESSE M. FURMAN, United States District Judge:

As discussed, and for the reasons stated, on the record during the conference conducted by telephone earlier today:

- All dates and deadlines in this case are STAYED; and
- Fact and expert discovery are CLOSED.

The Clerk of Court is directed to administratively close the case, without prejudice to either party moving to reopen within 30 days of any material development in the underlying liability action in state court. In any motion to reopen, the moving party shall indicate (1) whether they believe expert discovery is necessary, and, if so, describing why that is the case and proposing a schedule to conduct such discovery; (2) regardless of the necessity for expert discovery, proposing next steps for resolving this case, including, if appropriate, a briefing schedule for summary judgment motion practice.

SO ORDERED.
